Alarm Activation Leads to Two Arrests

On December 28, 2021 at approximately 1:30 AM, Manchester Police patrolling on Gold St heard alarms go off at both Mercedes Benz of Manchester and Enterprise Rent-A-Car.

Officers canvassed the area, and located a vehicle in the South Side Tavern parking lot at 1279 S. Willow St. Officers approached the vehicle and made contact with four people.

One passenger, 58 year old Edward Morin of Manchester (no set address) was found to have 10 stolen credit cards in his wallet. Police were able to connect the cards to two recent motor vehicle break ins and determined that all the cards had fraudulent transactions on them totaling thousands of dollars. As a result, Morin was charged with 2 felony counts of Receiving Stolen Property . Morin was also charged with 2 counts of Possession of a Controlled Drug.

Police also learned that another occupant, 46 year old Dennis Higgins of Manchester had an outstanding electronic bench warrant. He was also taken into custody as well.
